Virtual CFO Consulting

ABOUT Virtual CFO

Founded in 2019 we are a business consulting firm that provides strategic and operational advisory services to companies across multiple industries. The Virtual CFO is a new concept in Egypt. It's a way for businesses to get CFO support that they wouldn't have been able to afford previously. Businesses can get access to an experienced financial professional at a fraction of the cost of a full-time CFO. A Virtual CFO will handle all the duties of a traditional CFO but work remotely and on a part-time basis.

We offer a range of expert, high end financial services in the areas of preparing for a fund raise, developing business plans, implementing systems and processes, implementing budgeting systems, comprehensive financial health check-ups, cash flow planning, cost management, tax planning ,exit strategy, investor relations, turnaround management, and many more.

OUR Vision

To lead the market through excellence in providing financial consulting and services.

Vision

OUR Mission

At VCFO, our mission is to empower startups, small, and medium-sized enterprises in Egypt by providing innovative financial consulting services tailored to their unique needs. We are dedicated to delivering exceptional solutions in bookkeeping, business planning, investment support and tax compliance through our skilled team of CFOs and finance professionals.

We uphold the highest standards of respect, integrity, and confidentiality, ensuring that we understand and exceed our clients' expectations. By prioritizing a client-centric approach, we facilitate sustainable success, equipping our clients with the financial tools needed for long-term growth. As a trusted financial partner, we strive to foster growth and success for our clients in a dynamic business environment.

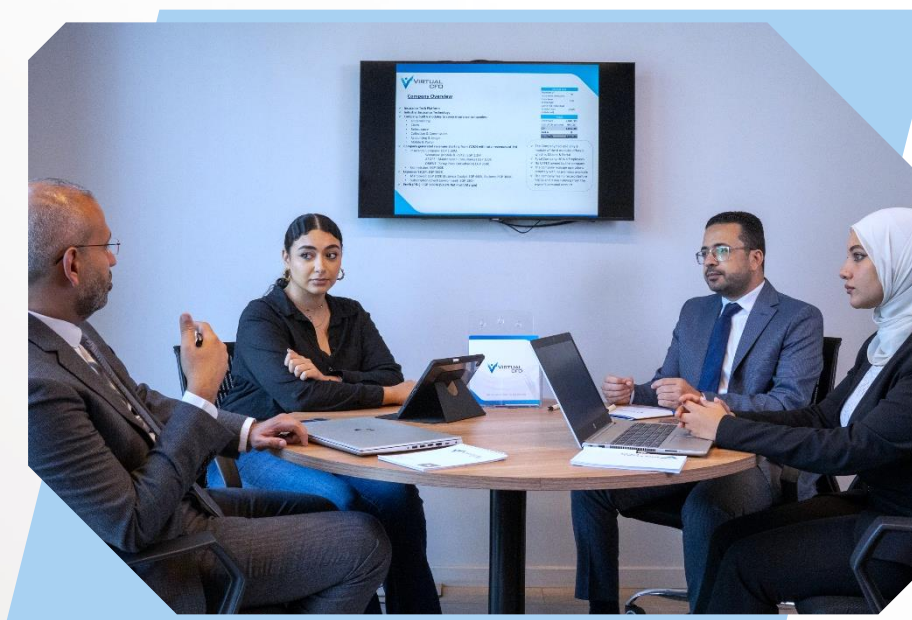

Mission

WHEN you might use a Virtual CFO

- ✓ When you think your company should be more profitable.
- ✓ When you need assistance with strategic planning.
- ✓ When you could benefit from an experienced sounding board for discussing ideas.
- ✓ When you could use some meaningful financial analysis.
- ✓ When your financial systems do not produce timely and accurate information for reporting purposes and decision-making.
- ✓ When you are spending too much time in accounting and financial management.
- ✓ When your systems that measure operations performance do not produce timely and accurate statistics for the purpose of making informed decisions.
- ✓ When you are not absolutely certain which factors are most important in driving (or limiting) the growth and profitability of your company; how those Key Performance Indicators should be tracked and analyzed; how they should affect your strategy.
- ✓ When your business is growing and you don't have a growth plan. When you need to find outside financing and you don't have bank relation.
- ✓ When you want to develop an effective incentive compensation program to help drive performance and avoid expensive turnover.
- ✓ When you are considering selling your company and you want to put your financial house in order, making your company as attractive and valuable as possible.

- ✓ When you need financial projections and “what if” scenarios to project cash flow, profits, growth and the impact of outside economic factors.
- ✓ When your policies, procedures and internal controls seem loose and you know you need to tighten them.
- ✓ When you would like access to someone who can negotiate with bankers.

STRATEGIC Planning

Building a new business plan

If you want to start out strong and stand out from your competitors with a unique business plan, we would love to offer our expertise. We will begin with a brainstorming session with you and your senior management team. Thereafter, we will research everything about your company, your products/services, your industry and your competition to build the foundation of the business plan. We then will supplement the plan with detailed financials, including sensitivity scenarios and ratio analysis to ratify various business statements. We also will design a version of the financial model for you to track on a regular basis, as your working budget file.

Our involvement doesn't stop there. From thereon, we will help the company in implementing the budgeting system and hand-hold the company's accounting team with generating monthly variance report for a cycle or two, until they are comfortable generating reports on their own. To simplify the process for the accounting staff we also provide exhaustive templates, with simple data input sheets, wherein they could feed their actual financials from their accounting software and generate detailed Management dashboard.

Customizing current business plan

If you have a basic business plan in place but feel that your business has evolved into something much larger, you might want to consider our services. We would give you a professional review, suggest changes and update it appropriately. We could even solidify it with a detailed financial forecast model and advise on additional content that should be included, considering your target audience for the plan.

OPERATIONAL Support

Month End Closing

Month end closing can be a tedious process since you would be evaluating the entire company's financial records for that month and would be making sure, that you have not missed out on anything. If any transaction has not been recorded, then adjustments have to be done. This can be excruciatingly time consuming which is why you could fast track your month-end close process with assistance from Virtual CFO.

Board and Management Reporting

We can't stress enough the importance of systematic and efficient management reporting. These reports that are generated help your team take the right business decisions; help boost your business's performance and enable good governance! Not only that but it also helps improve investor confidence. Our team of experts can help analyze and generate in depth reports for your business. We undertake a thorough review of financials and operational parameters to provide you detailed analytics and help in designing intelligent finance reports. We perform our analysis using ratios, trends, comparatives, industry benchmarking, scenarios, and other statistical techniques. We also undertake specialized analytics to help you with key stakeholder review meetings. Through the engagement, we would also implement a process whereby you get a clear view of profitability by client and by product/service category.

Bookkeeping

VCFO bookkeeping is the solution to controlling your business finances, tracking income/expenses and managing the day-to-day accounting and bookkeeping tasks. Free up valuable time with our accounting and bookkeeping services so you can put your focus back on growing your business.

FINANCE TEAM Organization

Team evaluation

You may have put together a great team of finance professionals, however, if they are not playing to their strengths, your organization is losing out on a great deal. For you to understand your team and make the most of their abilities, you can always render our services. Our team of experts will observe your finance team closely and make recommendations basis our interaction with them. Our team evaluation will boost the performance of your team and in turn will boost the performance of your business.

Recruitment

If you are looking for someone to join your finance team, tap into our vast network of CFOs, Controllers and senior finance professionals. Unlike regular headhunters, our team of experienced CFOs can help identify exactly which candidate would be the best fit for your team as they understand your specific requirement.

Training

We offer comprehensive training programs covered all finance and accounting aspects. We have a wide variety of training programs covering specific topics within the fields of financial valuation, tax compliance, due diligence, IPO and IFRS.

HEALTH CHECK Services

Accounting Health check

The purpose of this assessment is to check key accounting & reporting areas and give recommendations from a CFO's perspective to strengthen your finance & accounting function. Our CFO's use a proprietary comprehensive checklist and undertake detailed interaction with you, your accounting team, your auditors, your tax consultants and basis that we provide you with an executive summary of findings any areas to strengthen to take your company to the next level. Post the health-check, based on specific requirements, we even assist companies with drawing various policies & implementation of various suggestions

Systems Assessment and Development

We can assess your existing systems to make certain they are operating efficiently and providing accurate results on a timely basis. Where systems are inadequate, or are non-existent, we can develop them for you. This might include, among others, your financial accounting system, cost accounting system, purchasing/accounts payable process, operations process flow, or system for measuring operations performance.

Key Performance Indicators

All businesses have key factors that, if regularly monitored, can give a current indication of how the business is doing. Monitoring such factors has an advantage overlooking only at financial statements. Financial statements are historical documents. They tell us what happened weeks ago. Key performance indicators (KPIs) can tell us what is happening today and can sometimes predict what will happen in the future.

HEALTH CHECK Services

Accounting Policies & Procedures

Strong accounting policies and procedures are widely recognized as the most important requirement for sound internal controls for a business. We help our clients formulate & implement finance & accounting policies and procedures to improve internal controls, reporting and general management of the company.

Internal Controls

Implementing finance & accounting internal controls for a business is not an easy task. Not only do we advise growth companies with practical & important controls required, but also assist them with setting-up & implementing them. We closely work with the company in customizing various controls, based on size and stage of the company, to ensure its effectiveness.

CASH FLOW & Working Capital Management

Cash flow Management

Efficient & rapid cash cycle is very important for every business organization as Cash is considered as life blood of the business.

VCFO can assist the company to:

- ✓ Building detailed cashflow forecast- ideally 12months, annual; with at least a 13-week scrolling cashflow.
- ✓ Review all overdue receivables and accelerate collections.
- ✓ Evaluate all trade payables terms, and identify areas where negotiation is required.
- ✓ Explore opportunities to discount receivables and improve cashflows.
- ✓ Review and analyze inventory ageing and stock turns.
- ✓ Assess all kinds of investing and financing activities
- ✓ Review all key banking lines.
- ✓ Undertake sensitivity analysis to devise strategies to improve cashflows.

Working capital management

We assist companies in setting up necessary systems and processes to improve working capital management by:

- ✓ Review of working capital management function and setting up necessary team roles and tasks
- ✓ Analyzing receivables and payables cycles and setting benchmarks.
- ✓ Building detailed cashflow forecast and monitoring mechanism.
- ✓ Identifying areas to improve cashflow cycles.
- ✓ Assisting in setting up working capital lines with banks.

Profit maximization

A CFO plays an important role in assisting companies to maximize their profits. Since profit is a function of revenues and costs, one has to look for opportunities at increasing revenues and reducing / controlling costs in order to maximize profits. All of our CFO's have multiple years of experience in identifying even the smallest opportunity for saving costs and maximizing revenues.

TRANSACTION SUPPORT Services

IPO Support

If you don't have a CFO or if you have one but the CFO does not have relevant IPO experience; we at VCFO step in and act as your Interim CFO to assist you with the entire IPO process. Thereafter, upon completion of the IPO, we assist you in setting up necessary systems and processes to be able to undertake Public Company compliances. And then gradually transition various functions to a full time CFO (existing or new).

M & A Support

At VCFO, our CFO's have executed many M&A transactions, both on the buy-side as well as on the sell-side. We assist companies, in executing their M&A strategy with maximum possible benefits while keeping any transaction risk to the minimum.

Feasibility Studies

Preparation of Feasibility studies required for any kind of investments, new projects, expansion, and valuation of an available investment opportunity. Feasibility studies include market studies, technical studies & financial studies.

Due Diligence

Whether someone is conducting a due diligence on your organization and you need assistance with getting your data room in place or whether you are planning to undertake due diligence on some other company and want a detailed business and finance diligence, VCFO makes the perfect strategic partner for your requirements.
